

“I Never Thought It Would Be This Way”

By: Joshua Wright

I'm from a city where a lot of people hate you and the ones that stab you in the back
be in your face too,
but you got to suck it all up
and keep trying to make it to the top.
An attitude like that will mess 'em all up.
No matter how hard it gets you can't give up when they knock you down
you got to get back up.

A lot of people fall with a pretty smile and a big buck, Me I want the cash so it's a must.
I keep the smart up, stand up!
If you feel me,
then let this be said longer,
the real either die, end up in jail or sour.

I started from a seed,
now I'm growing like a flower, cause I'm getting what they don't want
and that's power.
The real got to suffer
and it's easy for the cowards.
And I can change a person mind frame in an hour cause I know what I'm capable of on ever poem, now when I think about it they were the ones wrong.
